The Fort Mason Foundation, a privately-funded nonprofit organization, is engaged in renovating surplus military buildings at Fort Mason, headquarters of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area. The Foundation administers Fort Mason Center which is located on the Bay between Aquatic Park and the Marina Green. In less than three years, the Center has become a national model for low-cost community-responsive urban parks.

We invite you to bring your conferences, classes, performances, meetings or benefits to Fort Mason. Space for suitable activities is available for a nominal daily or hourly fee. Enjoy the pleasure of teaching, working, or performing in this unusual national park location. Call 441-5706 for booking appointments and information.

STORYTELLING

Like a good story? You'll find a day full at the first annual Bay Area Storytelling Festival with a variety of workshops for storytellers and story lovers on Sunday, November 14th, 11am to 7pm, in Building C. Highlighting the event is an evening concert featuring internationally famous storytellers, Barbara Freeman and Connie Regan of the Folktellers, in their first Bay Area appearance. The Folktellers' exuberant performances have captured audiences of all ages with their unique blend of humor, mountain tales and contemporary stories.

The Festival opens at 11am with a workshop by the Folktellers, demonstrating their craft and sharing tips for selecting and adapting stories. The afternoon will allow participants a choice of three workshops lead by local storytellers. The workshops are: storytelling and music; storytelling styles and techniques; and ghost stories. For the experience storyteller there will be a critique session and a workshop on becoming a professional storyteller. During the supper break, local storytellers will entertain with their favorite tales.

The advance registration fee is $25 and the deadline is November 1st. The fee covers an event concert after the workshops and a box supper. Families are encouraged to attend the concert at 7:30pm and tickets for this may be purchased separately—$5. for adults, and $2.50 for senior citizens with children under 12 admitted free. Write to the Bay Area Storytelling Festival, 221 The Uplands, Berkeley, California 94705. For more information call 654-7538 or 843-0533.

FALL ANTIQUES SHOW

The first San Francisco Antiques Show to feature distinguished dealers from New York, London, Dallas, Los Angeles, Carmel and San Francisco will be held in Pier 3, November 11 through 14, from 11am-9pm on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and from 1pm to 6pm on Sunday. Admission will be $8 including a catalogue. This annual event will benefit Enterprise for High School Students, Inc., a non-profit job referral service.

A magnificent display of fine antiques will include collections of American, English, Oriental and Continental antique furniture, rugs, porcelain, and decorative accessories for sale. Rare books, paintings, fine and unusual silver and antique jewelry will be seen, some for the first time.

An opening night preview party, November 10, from 6pm to 9pm will allow patrons and interested collectors a first viewing. Tickets are $75. The show, geared towards dealers and collectors of fine antiques as well as the interested public, features a lecture series with prominent speakers in the field.

Below is the Schedule:

Decorating with Antiques Thursday, 11/11, 10am, International interior designer Mario Buatta moderates a panel discussion with Anthony Hail and Betty Sherrill.

Classical Gardens in Perspective Friday, 11/12, 2pm, a member of the Winterthur Museum will speak.

Curating Your Own Collection Saturday, 11/13, 10am Donald Stover, Chief Curator of Decorative Arts for the M.H. de Young Museum will speak on exhibiting, insuring and conservation.

Collecting American Antiques Saturday, 11/13, 2pm, Wendell Garrett, editor and publisher of the Magazine Antiques, will lecture with Dean Failey, Vice-president of American Furniture and Decorative Arts—Cristie's

Lecture tickets are $15 per lecture or $50 for the series. Group rates are available for the show and lectures and can be made by calling 921-6556.

Surya Singer, slack-rope walker, juggler and clown will delight you.

CHILDREN'S FAIR

The second annual San Francisco Children's Fair is a joyous celebration of the city's bountiful resources for children and parents. On November 6 and 7, Saturday and Sunday, it will all take place in Pier 2 from 10am to 5pm. There will be free parking at Crissy Field, with shuttle bus service to Fort Mason Center.

San Francisco's Favorite jugglers, dancers, musicians, mimes and choral groups will entertain throughout the weekend. Ray Jason (official 49er's juggler), Make-A-Circus clowns, Robin Goodrow—puppeteer and the San Francisco Boys' Chorus will delight fairgoers.

Two Children's theater troups will give special performances and workshops. The New Conservatory Theater will present "Dizzy, Dizzy, Daffy and Arthur." The Academy of Media and Theater Arts will perform "Inside-Out," a musical adventure by, for and about children.

Around the fair children can enjoy art projects guided by the de Young Museum Art School and the Alvarado Arts Workshop. Learn computing on programs specially designed for children, courtesty of FOLLK. Ex-Giant baseball star, Mike Sadek, and ex-Warrior basketball great, Nate Thurmond, with other local sports celebrities, will be available for advice and autographs in the Sports Center.

Kids can monkey around on Monkey Mases, try their hand at needlework and play with model trains. They explore the world of science at exhibits by the Exploratorium and the California Academy of Sciences and play games of skill and chance at the Kid Alley Arcade.

Parents will have the opportunity to inquire about community resources available throughout the city and can shop for specially selected gifts for children.

The San Francisco Children's Fair is a benefit for Magic Years Infant and Childcare Programs, Inc. Now in its seventh year, Magic Years offers continuous child care for children from the age of three months to five years. For more information call 665-7447.

SAN FRANCISCO HOLIDAY FESTIVAL

The Christmas season is just a month away, and plans are presently taking shape for the biggest, brightest Christmas extravaganza that San Francisco has ever seen. The San Francisco Holiday Festival, opening Thanksgiving Day at Pier 3, will feature the top quality seasonal merchandise of some 200 exhibitors combined with the entertainment magic of Bill Graham Presents, producers of the event.

There will be ongoing entertainment and booths featuring favorite Christmas food and drink and exotic dishes representing the rich ethnic diversity of the city. Children will get plenty of chances to whisper their fondest wishes in Santa's ear. A giant slide will deliver them right into Toyland, where Santa will greet them.

The Festival celebrates San Francisco as well as Christmas. Wandering through aisle after aisle of booths, visitors will find themselves in familiar "neighborhoods" clustered around favorite landmarks-in-miniature, Coit Tower, Ghirardelli Square, The Conservatory of Flowers, the Chinatown Gate, Fisherman's Wharf, Japantown, and a stunning 80-foot model of the Golden Gate Bridge. The festivities run four long weeks November 25th through December 19th, Thursdays and Fridays, noon-10pm, and Saturdays and Sundays from 10am to 10pm. Admission is $6 for adults and $3 for children (under 5 FREE). For further information call 986-2396
